He stated that there are about 15 to 20 active members in the Jonesboro chapter, and that the actual membership in Jonesboro amounted to approximately 50 to 75 persons. He stated that only two other chapters of the Deacons have been organized in Louisiana, and they are located at Bogalusa and Homer. To his knowledge, no other chapters of the Deacons have been formed anywhere in the United States. He stated that he did not know the number of members or the names of the officers in either Homer or Bogalusa.

[REDACTED] stated that the bylaws of the organization have not yet been drawn up and that this was one of the major problems facing the organization. 11 [redacted] advised he is a member of the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Jonesboro Chapter, [redacted]. He advised that during the summer of 1964 several CORE workers come to Jonesboro to aid the Negroes. The white people in the community became alarmed at their presence in Jonesboro and shortly afterwards an auto caravan containing Ku Klux Klan members drove through the Negro quarters of Jonesboro throwing out Ku Klux Klan literature and telling the residents to get rid of the CORE workers. [redacted] advised the Negroes became so alarmed at this incident they decided that since local law enforcement was not protecting them they would get together and form a group to defend their homes and property in the event the Ku Klux Klan returned. As a result, a large number of Negroes went to their homes and returned with firearms. They returned to the CORE headquarters area in Jonesboro to await the return of the Ku Klux Klan. The latter did not return. [redacted] advised this was the start of the idea to form the Deacons.

CHARLEY WHITE is the Financial Secretary. ERNEST THOMAS is the acting Vice-President and Fieldman. At the present time THOMAS is in San Francisco. His job as Fieldman is to raise funds and attempt to organize new Chapters. [REDACTED] advised THOMAS is expected to return to Jonesboro sometime around the middle of August, 1965.

[REDACTED] advised the Deacons have monthly dues of $2.00 for each member. The Jonesboro Chapter also has an initiation fee of $10.00 per member. He stated that when a new Chapter is organized the original Chapter fee is $100.00, and this is sent to Jonesboro. Each Chapter itself can designate its own initiation fee and the Chapter keeps this money. Thereafter each Chapter must send 10 per cent of the dues collected each month to the headquarters in Jonesboro. [REDACTED] stated he does not know how many Chapters or members there are at the present time. He advised [REDACTED] would have this information. He also stated that ERNEST THOMAS has not made any reports [REDACTED] on his trip so he does not believe the information concerning all the Chapters and members will be known until THOMAS returns.

██████████ advised he has read some of the remarks made in the newspapers by ERNEST THOMAS. He advised the organization does not furnish weapons to its members as most of them have personally owned weapons. He does not know of any source of weapons or cache which the Deacons might have. He personally feels that if THOMAS made this remark it is possible he, THOMAS has developed a source for obtaining weapons in his travels.

██████████ related that not all the men in the leadership of the Deacons agree with THOMAS and his way of thinking. At the present time none of the Deacons in Jonesboro, to his knowledge, know exactly what he is doing or has accomplished in his travels, and they will probably not know until he returns.

██████████ stated that the Deacons is open to anyone over the age of 21 who satisfactorily passes a background check. This investigation is usually conducted by ██████████ or another member of the Jonesboro Chapter. The main reason for this check is to keep undesirable people out of the organization such as those with criminal characteristics or those who have very poor credit records in the community. He also stated the Deacons prefer married men and they prefer all members to be registered voters.

It was tactfully pointed out to ██████████ the dangers inherent in illegal arming and illegal acts which might result from encouragement of members to arm and carry firearms.

[REDACTED] advised that he is a member of the Deacons of Defense and Justice. He stated that this organization first started as a club about the last part of Spring, 1964. He stated that this club did not have a name but consisted of Negro males residing in the "Quarters" section of Jonesboro, Louisiana. He stated that because of this incident, coupled with the fact that the caravan was lead by a Sheriff's Office vehicle, it was decided that the Deacons of Defense and Justice should be formed in order to protect the lives and property of those who lived in the "Quarters." He stated that the purpose of the Deacons of Defense and Justice is to protect the rights of all citizens, "black and white." He explained that the purpose of this organization was not to take the law into their own hands but the purpose was for civic improvement through negotiation and the protection of the rights of individuals through court action and legal means.

On June 10, 1965, [redacted] Negro male [redacted]

[redacted] indicated that a Chapter of the Deacons for Defense and Justice had been formed in Homer, Louisiana. [redacted] indicated that the organization, exclusively composed of local Negro males, had originally been formed by Negroes in Bogalusa and Jonesboro, Louisiana, as a self-protection group. [redacted] continued to explain that the organization was active in areas where Civil Rights activity had either actually or was presumed to potentially precipitate violence against Negroes by local white segregationists.

[redacted] said that the specific purpose of the group was to arm themselves and to "meet force with force" in such instances as local white men employed force or "terror tactics" against Negroes. [redacted] was emphatic in stressing that the organization intended no aggressive or violent action against any individual or group, and that no member of the organization would employ any type of force unless such action was initiated against him first.

[redacted] furnished a list of Negro male individuals who are currently members of the Homer, Louisiana Chapter of the organization and the positions they occupy as follows:

He said there are usually 10 or 12 members in attendance. He said the group is waiting for someone from the Jonesboro, Louisiana, Chapter of the Deacons for Defense and Justice to come to Homer to advise them as to what activity they are to undertake. He advised that until someone from Jonesboro explains how the organization works, there will be no activity of the Homer, Louisiana, chapter.

The Los Angeles Times, Los Angeles, California, dated June 13, 1965, carried a story concerning the Deacons for Defense and Justice in which the writer stated that the Deacons claimed that they had machine guns and hand grenades for use in racial warfare. ERNEST THOMAS, 32, of Jonesboro, who was described as an official and full-time organizer for the Deacons, according to this article, told newsmen that there were 50 to 55 chapters of the Deacons in Louisiana, Mississippi, and Alabama, and fund-raising units were being established in San Francisco, New York, and other large cities.

This article further stated that at interviews with members of the Deacons, indications were made that this group was armed with pistols and rifles, and THOMAS stated, "We have contacts in Chicago and Houston for automatic weapons--for .50 caliber and .30 caliber." THOMAS additionally stated that they had machine guns and hand grenades for use in racial strife.

Investigations conducted at Chicago and Houston have not developed any information that would indicate that any large quantity of weapons has been sold to any individuals or group in the Jonesboro, Bogalusa, or New Orleans area of Louisiana.

APPENDIX

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled, "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto", the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of RAM.

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963, by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, now residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto reflected that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, above, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the Crime of Kidnapping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he now publishes a monthly newsletter entitled "The Crusader" from Havana.

On November 16, 1965, a second source advised that he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization was begun in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, Cleveland, Ohio, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin". FREEMAN now serves as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, serving RAM as Field Chairman. This second source advised that there is no formal headquarters, as such, for RAM at present, but that headquarters are, in effect, with FREEMAN since he plays a dominant role in the leadership and directs the policies and activities of the organization.

RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, of clandestine nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World", that is, the non-white races of the world, rather than to any national entity, as such.

To date, according to the second source, in November, 1964, RAM has organized units and membership in several of the larger cities in the United States east of the Mississippi River, and the organization is currently active, attempting to recruit new members and expand its sphere of influence.

On July 2, 1965, according to the newspaper States-Item of New Orleans, Louisiana, on that date, Earnest Thomas was a speaker at the annual convention of CORE at Durham, North Carolina, and that Thomas was one of the speakers along with James Farmer, Kenneth X, a Black Muslim leader from Durham, and Bayard Rustin of New York City who organized the civil rights march on Washington in 1963. It was reported that Thomas in his speech attacked the idea of non-violence. He said the Deacons was created to inform the klan that Negroes on the whole are not non-violent. Thomas was supported in this attitude by another speaker, Dr. Lonnie X, a Black Muslim minister of Washington, D.C., who also spoke, saying "It is better to spend 30 seconds in the glory of manhood than a 1,000 years in the news."

A characterization of the Nation of Islam is attached hereto in the appendix section.

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NATION OF ISLAM

In January, 1957, a source advised Elijah Muhammad has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation of Islam" (NOI) and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam".

On May 8, 1964, a second source advised Elijah
Muhammad is the national leader of the NOI; Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, Muhammad and other NOI officilas, when referring to Muhammad's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either
"Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. Muhammad claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of salvery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following Muhammad's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including Muhammad, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised Muhammad had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 7, 1964, a third source advised Muhammad had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to Muhammad, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his programs.

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled, "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto", the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of RAM.

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963, by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, now residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto reflected that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the non-white races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, above, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the Crime of Kidnapping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he now publishes a monthly newsletter entitled "The Crusader" from Havana.

On November 16, 1965, a second source advised that he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization was begun in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, Cleveland, Ohio, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin". FREEMAN now serves as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, serving RAM as Field Chairman. This second source advised that there is no formal headquarters, as such, for RAM at present, but that headquarters are, in effect, with FREEMAN since he plays a dominant role in the leadership and directs the policies and activities of the organization.

This second source, in September, 1964, advised that RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely non-white in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World", that is, the non-white races of the world, rather than to any national entity, as such.

To date, according to the second source, in November, 1964, RAM has organized units and membership in several of the larger cities in the United States east of the Mississippi River, and the organization is currently active, attempting to recruit new members and expand its sphere of influence.

The Committee to Aid the Deacons

[redacted] advised the scheduled meeting of the Committee to Aid the Deacons was begun at 8 p.m. at the University YMCA, Austin, Texas, on August 19, 1965, with approximately thirty people present. This group was predominately white and only one Negro girl who is a student at the University of Texas was present.

PAUL PIPKIN, member of the Students for a Democratic Society, introduced MARK KLEIN as program speaker.

From 8 p.m. to approximately 9 p.m. KLEIN voiced Communistic propaganda and read from numerous books their contents all favorable to Communism. KLEIN also advocated that Negroes should all arm themselves and organize into groups who could then protect themselves against the Ku Klux Klan, racists, and law enforcement officers who attack peaceful demonstrations.

KLEIN specifically recommended that each Negro in addition to having the necessary firearms to defend his home, should have a loaded rifle and pistol in his car at all times and be ready "to defend the Negroes."

Following KLEIN's address, approximately one hour question and answer period followed. During this time, KLEIN was "hard put" to justify his position that armed deacons for defense and justice would not lead to positive open clashes between whites and Negroes. During this session, KLEIN defined his personal position as a "revolutionary socialist."

The meeting was adjourned just prior to 10 p.m. in order that KLEIN could watch the 10 p.m. TV news and determine if the meeting was on local television.

There were no incidents and no arrests were made.

DEACONS COUNSEL MISSISSIPPI GROUP

Defense Steps Explained by Negroes From Louisiana

By ROY REED

Special to The New York Times

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 29

Several members of the Deacons for Defense and Justice came from Louisiana today to tell Mississippi Negroes and civil rights workers how to organize for defense against white terrorism.

The Deacons came in response to a buildup of racial tension in Mississippi. Several acts of violence have occurred during the last week.

The Mississippi Freedom Democratic party, which is militantly pro-civil rights and predominantly Negro, sponsored a forum in Jackson this afternoon for dissemination of information on the Deacons. The Deacons are a loosely organized defense league formed last year in Louisiana to protect Negroes against marauding and harassing whites. Louisiana has several chapters.

The Rev. Ed King, a teacher at predominantly Negro Tougaloo College at Jackson and a member of the executive committee of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic party, said the party was not taking a stand on the Deacons but was simply providing an opportunity for people to learn more about

Bogalusa Delegation

Mississippi Negroes are "very interested" in the Deacons at the moment, he said.

Charles Sims, the president of the Deacons at Bogalusa, led a delegation of 10 from that recently embattled town to discuss organized defense at the Jackson meeting.

Mr. Sims walked into the Negro Masonic Hall on Lynch Street with his coat on his arm, in deference to the 99-degree weather, and was greeted warmly by several white and Negro civil rights leaders.

Another delegation of Deacons met with Negroes at Natchez today.

Negroes there have been angry and edgy since a bomb exploded in the car of George Metcalfe, president of the Natchez branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People on Friday and injured him seriously.

Young Negroes have gathered on the streets the last two nights and shouted threats at passing white motorists. A few cars, including police cars, have been hit by bricks, bottles and tomatoes.

Negroes blame the Ku Klux Klan for most of the violence at Natchez and elsewhere in Mississippi.

Evers V. Alan

Charles E. of Jackson, state secretary of the N.A.A.C.P. who hurried to Natchez and helped prevent an antiwhite outbreak after the bombing, said today:

"I want to say this to the Ku Klux Klan: Stay out of the Negro section at night. We're going to protect ourselves."

He had warned earlier that Negroes were armed heavily at Natchez and were ready to start using guns to stop harassment and terrorism.

A member of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee said at Jackson that Deacons were meeting today with Negroes in at least two other Mississippi towns, Greenville, 150 miles up the Mississippi River from Natchez, and Columbia, in the south-central part of the state.

The week of violence and tension began last Sunday night when the Rev. Donald Thompson, a white Unitarian minister who has been active in civil rights work, was gunned down and seriously wounded by a shotgun attack outside his apartment house.

Mr. Thompson was shot two days after a shotgun attack in Lowndes County, Ala., killed a white Episcopal seminarian and critically wounded a white Roman Catholic priest.

A group of religious leaders at Jackson took a full page advertisement in the Sunday newspaper here today and denounced the attack on Mr. Thompson.

A member of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic party reported last night that three crosses were burned earlier in the evening at Philadelphia, Miss. He said gunfire had been reported near a house where civil rights workers were staying.

Re: Appearance of Robert Hicks, Vice-President, Bogalusa (Louisiana) Deacons for Defense and Justice Sponsored by Group on Advanced Leadership (GOAL), August 22, 1965,
Detroit, Michigan

On August 23, 1965, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on August 22, 1965, beginning at approximately 3:00 PM, a freedom dinner for the Deacons of Bogalusa, Louisiana, was held at 4472 Chene Street, Detroit, Michigan. Source advised that approximately 300 individuals were present at this affair and admission was by ticket at a cost of $3.00 each.

According to the source, Henry King, who was an official in the GOAL when it was in existence, served as the Master of Ceremonies. He introduced Richard Henry, who was the president of GOAL, and Henry delivered the first speech. Henry talked of GOAL as having been strictly an all Negro organization except for a few Caucasians who happened to be married to Negroes. He said the Negroes struggle for freedom must continue and surmised that there would be other outbreaks of violence like the one which had earlier occurred in Watts, California. Henry said the United States of America is militarily powerful, nevertheless, Negroes will have to fight periodically even though they cannot win against the government's might. He said that violence at times was the only way of letting "Mr. Charlie" know that the black people were tired of being pushed around.

As Henry was speaking, John Conyers, Jr., U.S. Congressman from the First Congressional District, Detroit, entered and Henry commented that he was glad to know Mr. Conyers could come to such a meeting. Henry also acknowledged the presence of Congressman Charles-Diggs from the U.S. 13th Congressional District. Henry said he was a strict believer in the "co-op" system but would not fight with other Negroes who were coming together for the cause of the civil rights struggle.

12 Source advised that other speakers at this affair
13 were Congressmen Conyers and Diggs. According to the 14 source, Mr. Conyers stated he did not believe in violence
15 but felt a man was less than a man if he would not defend 16 himself, his property and his family. He said it was the 17 constitutional right of every American to "take up arms in 18 self-defense" if law enforcement agencies failed to provide 19 said defense. Conyers spoke of police brutality in Detroit
20 and said it had long been an issue with Negroes. He said
21 Negroes must register and vote to defend the bigots who 22 constantly support police brutality and deny the Negroes
23 their basic rights. He said the Watts incident was a war 24 between the "haves and the have nots". He said it was 25 nothing but a class war fought by people who live in ghettos
26 without jobs and decent houses. He stated "Hear me Mr.
27 President, you had better take the money you are spending in 28 Vietnam to fight an uncalled for war and spend it here on 29 the big city slums or else you will have more class wars".

30
31 Conyers talked of the registrars presently in the 32 South as being inadequate and he stated he would see the 33 U.S. Attorney General on Monday and advise him that they 34 will not settle for anything less than a registrar in 35 every county in the South.

36
37 According to the source, Congressman Diggs stated
38 he had heard of the Deacons for Defense and Justice in 39 Louisiana and acknowledged that various situations in the 40 civil rights movement called for new techniques and 41 approaches. Mr. Diggs said he had talked with U.S. Attorney
42 General Katzenbach on Friday and voiced dissatisfaction
43 with the number of voting registrars presently supervising
44 voting registrations in the South. He indicated his pleasure 45 at seeing so many persons present at this dinner.

46
47 Among other speakers at this affair, according to 48 the source, were Robert Hicks, President of the Voters
49 League in Bogalusa and a charter member of the Deacons
50 for Defense and Justice, and Charles Sims, another member 51 of the Deacons from Bogalusa.

53 According to the source, Mr. Hicks related the 12 Louisiana. He said the Deacons came into existence because 13 the police of Bogalusa simply refused to protect Negroes

14 and the whites who were trying to help. He said several 15 northern white university students had come to Bogalusa
16 to help them organize. He said the Deacons came about 17 because one night the sheriff had appeared at his home
18 and demanded that they turn over to the Klan the young 19 white students who were in Bogalusa helping them. He 20 said the police were ordered out of the home and when 21 the Klan appeared and fired into the house they, the 22 Deacons, returned the fire and that is how they came into 23 existence. He said the Governor of Louisiana signed the 24 charter legalizing the existence of the Deacons.

26 Hicks said the Negroes plight in Bogalusa was 27 helped when the Klan refused to let Congressman Brooks
28 Hays of Arkansas appear there. Hicks said that white 29 persons from all over the country wrote letters of 30 disapproval citing the issue of free speech. Consequently,
31 the political leaders of the city declared an all Negro 32 day which permitted the use of all facilities without 33 discrimination. Hicks praised the efforts of Mr. John 34 Doar, Assistant Attorney General in Charge of the Civil 35 Rights Division, U.S. Department of Justice, and he 36 commented that Mr. Doar had done much to help. Hicks 37 said that their cause was also helped by the presence of 38 50 FBI agents. Hicks commented that one of the agents
39 was taking pictures and a Klansman attacked him. Hicks
40 said the Klansman was immediately arrested and later tried 41 and sent to a Federal prison and that quieted the Klan for 42 a while. Hicks said he looked forward to the day when 43 whites and Negroes could live in peace together. He 44 said he was disappointed by things in the North because 45 he thought there was a different atmosphere here.

46
47 According to the source, Mr. Sims mentioned in 48 his speech much of the same material which had been 49 stated by Robert Hicks. Sims spoke of future harmony
50 among the races and of the day when the whites and the 51 Negroes could live peaceably together. He said the 52 white man respects three things, namely: (1) money;
53 (2) the vote, because he controls everything that way;
54 and (3) power or force. He said white people have never 55 hesitated to go to war when their freedom was in jeopardy.

He said the Deacons intend to fight until they have the "whole hog" as they have "backed up to the river and will either drown or fight".

Source advised that $509.00 was contributed during this affair to the cause of the Deacons in Louisiana. Source said this money was presented to Robert Hicks on the stage at this affair as soon as it had been counted. According to the source, Hicks and Sims stated they had to catch a plane back to Louisiana that same evening.

DEACONS OF DEFENSE AND JUSTICE, INC.

Deacons of Defense and Justice, Inc., was formed at Jonesboro, Louisiana, during the Summer of 1964, following incidents involving racial activities, which incidents created tension in the area.

The organization was formed by Negro leaders in Jonesboro for the announced purpose of protecting Negroes and whites from illegal acts and from acts designed to terrorize the Negro community, and was chartered with main headquarters at Jonesboro, Louisiana. Associate chapters are located at Bogalusa and Homer, Louisiana, and inquiries were received from other groups concerning this movement, but no action has been taken to approve additional chapters.

Officers of Deacons of Defense and Justice, Inc., assert that the organization is a defensive group with no intention to commit or encourage any offensive acts. Leaders of the organization denied purchase of firearms for the group and further denied knowledge of any source of contacts for this purpose.

The President of this organization disclaims any connection with or influence by subversive elements.
